

RAIDER ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Vicki Oliver Gilbert '72 resides in Cordele, Georgia, with her husband Mickey, a loan officer with Ag First Farm Credit. They have two grown children, Kevin, 30, who is married to Cathleen Duff; and Tiffany, 26, a 6th grade teacher. Vicki attended Georgia Southwestern State University and is employed at Crisp Regional Hospital as an employee health/infection control nurse. Vicki has been nursing for 33 years.

Pam Munn Rojas '79 lives in Macon, Georgia. She and her husband, Tony, have a son, Rob, age 16.

Eric Moore '81 attended the University of Georgia and is employed with UTC Fire and Security. Eric and his wife, Rita, have lived in Charlottesville, Virginia, for 12 years. They met in college and celebrated their 20th anniversary in April 2007. Rita is a social worker by degree, but became a stay-at-home mom when their son was born. She is now working as a teaching assistant at the school their children attend. Eric and Rita have 2 children, Will, age 9, a third grader; and Gracie, 6, a kindergartener. Eric and Rita are very active in their church serving on numerous committees and with the children's ministries. Eric also coaches Little League baseball and Upward Basketball.

Charles Lamb '82 lives in Thomaston, Georgia, with wife, Vicky, a school teacher, and their two children, Russell, 16; and Clay, 12. Charles attended Georgia Southwestern State University, and Augusta State University. He is employed at Upson Regional Hospital as an RN; B.D. Charles has been active in the Augusta Hills Lions Club, where he has held offices from Secretary to President. In his spare time, he enjoys golf, softball, and tennis.

BillyJean English McCracken '84 attended Greenville Technical College. She resides in Simpsonville, South Carolina, where she is a school nurse at Plains Elementary School. BillyJean and her husband, Mike, have 2 children, Lainey, age 14; and Logan, age 12. Mike is the owner of the Kick Back Kove Restaurant. BillyJean graduated with honors from nursing school in 2004. She enjoys sunbathing and taking trips to the Caribbean with her family. She also loves watching her children play sports.

Scott Tucker '88 and his wife, Patti, serve through the Mission Society as missionaries in Kazakhstan. The Tuckers and their three children, Joseph, Benjamin, and Amy, were back home in Georgia for a three month furlough this summer. They have lived in Karaganda for 2 years and have committed for at least 2 more years of service.

Charmane Buchanan Reading '89 resides in Kannapolis, North Carolina, with husband, Lee, a battalion chief with the fire department, and their three children, Brooks, 13; Morgan, 5; and Jordan, 3. Charmane attended Bob Jones University and is employed as a pediatric dental assistant, and as a fitness director and personal trainer.

Mitchell Smith '95 graduated from Georgia Southwestern State University and is an environmental geologist with TTL, Inc. in Albany, Georgia. He and his wife, Jennifer, live in Americus, Georgia. Jennifer is employed with Webster County School System as a teacher/technology coordinator. They have a daughter, Mary Thomas, age 2, and are expecting a son due in January 2008.

Johnie Tucker '95 and his wife, Laura, were married on May 5, 2007 in Athens, Georgia. Johnie just began a new job as the annual fund coordinator for the College of Agriculture and Environmental Science at the University of Georgia. Laura is a clinical dietician at Athens Regional Hospital.

Robin Whigham Clements '98 and her husband, David, live in Americus, Georgia. Robin attended South Georgia Technical College and is the owner/operator of The Hair Company Salon. David is a branch manager/electrical foreman with Albany Electric. Their 4-year-old daughter, Carson Michelle, is a pre-kindergarten student at Southland this year. Robin loves painting, decorating, and spending time with her family and friends. She is a member of the Americus Junior Service League and serves on the South Georgia Technical College Cosmetology Advisory Board.

Jennifer Etheridge Fonda '01 attended Columbus State University and is employed as a graphic artist. She and her husband, David, live in Cumming, Georgia, where David is an IT director.

Terri Greene Edwards '02 attended South Georgia Technical College and is employed at M & D Masonry, Inc. as a human resources manager. She and her husband, Jimmy, reside in Ellaville, Georgia, where he works for Southeast Modular Manufacturing. They have two children, Mikayla, age 4; and Will, age 2. Terri enjoys making cakes and experimenting with new, healthy recipes.

Clay Greene '02 lives in Ellaville, Georgia, with wife Holly and two-year-old son, Tucker. Clay is employed with Greenfield/Amermac, Inc.

Southland Alumni Membership Committee Hard at work!

The Southland Alumni Membership and Development Committees have been working to update addresses in order for us to keep in touch with all of our graduates. Please look for your membership application to arrive in the mail. You may also print it from our web page. We hope you will complete and return it promptly. Pictured at work are: Alumni, David Baldwin, Sandra Johnson, Dolores Crook, Mike Fletcher, Melanie Mathis (Director of Development), Wilkie Smith, and Justin Arnold.

